Turkey Order Form

Ridge View Farms, "Home of the Happy Chicken" raises and promotes fresh healthy chickens that provide an excellent meal choice for you and your family. At Ridge View Farms, we raise our chickens in a humane, stress free environment. Our chickens have a constant supply of fresh water and enjoy the freedom of being outside in the sunshine and eating up nature's offerings. In addition to nature's offerings, our chickens have a steady supply of fresh feed which we formulate and mix ourselves right here at the farm. Because we use organic certified vitamins and minerals, and don't use animal by-products, antibiotics or other non-natural feed additives, Ridge View Farms is able to provide tender, tastier, healthy chicken which will give you and your family a new meaning to eating chicken. Ridge View Farm's commitment to excellence doesn't stop with raising healthy happy chickens. Raising healthy happy chickens is only a part of bringing a healthy meal to the dinner table. Bringing the chicken from the barn yard to the family table is a timely and environmentally sensitive process that requires a knowledge and skill to produce a premium, top quality product.
